

JAMES NARDONE TRAVEL GRANT WINNER 2011

Travel to: Cairo, Egypt and Berlin, Germany

Interested in: Art with political intention. Montage as a method of storytelling.

- Opportunity to volunteer as a photographer at Video Cairo Satellite as a means of witnessing and documenting the current upheaval advocating representational democracy in Egypt.
- Artist Residency in Berlin as a means to create new work incorporating documentaion from Egypt.
- In Berlin, a vital international art center, the intention is to co-mingle with contemporary artists equally interested in activist imagery and the installation of such imagery in urban, grafitti energized settings.

James Nardone, Untitled, Silkscreen, 36"x48"