The MassArt medallion and chain, carried in this ceremony by Howie LaRosee, was designed and fabricated by Professor Jill Slosberg-Ackerman for the inauguration of MassArt's ninth president, Bill O'Neil. Made of sterling silver and gold, the chain symbolizes the integration of the hand, the heart, and the mind along with the tools used by artists and designers. I am glad to present the medallion to President Nelson, with Taylor Cheek, representing our students, and Howie, representing our staff.
