Instructions for Break Out #1

In this next exercise, we would like you to imagine that you are meeting with your fellow decision makers to discuss topics or areas that you would like to explore further during the hearing, and questions that you would like to ask the parties and witnesses.

Groups 1, 2: Complainant

Groups 3, 4: Respondent

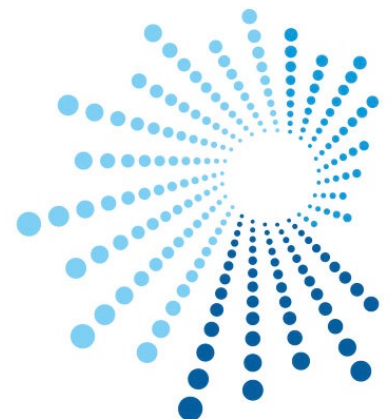

Groups 5, 6: Witnesses

In a few moments, we are going to divide you into groups and put each group into a breakout room. Once inside the room we would like you to briefly introduce yourselves to each other. Then, we would like you to pick a scribe. The scribe will be responsible for documenting your groups responses. At the conclusion of your time together, the scribe will send the questions, via email, to Jody at Jody@grandriversolutions.com

Instructions for Break Out #2

The hearing is well underway, opening instructions have been provided and the parties have delivered opening statements. It is time for testimony. The parties have provided the following list of proposed questions. (Included below as "Questions Submitted by Parties.")

In your break-out groups, discuss the list of proposed questions and whether or not you will permit them during the hearing. If you are not going to permit them, indicate the reason for your ruling. At the conclusion of the breakout, one member of each group will be asked to discuss one of the proposed questions.

Questions Submitted by Parties

Questions Submitted by Complainant

For Respondent

1. You knew complainant was too drunk to have sex, but you didn't care, isn't that right?
2. In fact, you made sure she was drunk so that you could do whatever you wanted to her?
3. Isn't it true that you kept refilling the Complainant's beer because you were trying to get her drunk?
4. This is not the first time you have gotten a girl drunk at a party, is it?
5. It also isn't the first time that you walked a drunk girl home and then had sex with her while she was passed out?
6. You've hooked up with a lot of girls, haven't you?
7. This isn't the first time that a girl accused you of rape, is it?
8. You have been in trouble with the College before, haven't you?

For Kelsea

1. You've had a crush on Caleb for a really long time, isn't that true?
2. You are lying for him about how drunk Complainant was that night to get in his good graces, aren't you?

For Maxwell

1. When Caleb and Complainant got back to your suite that night, you said you spoke to them for about a minute. Isn't it true that you spoke to Caleb and that Complainant didn't say anything?
2. Isn't it true that this isn't the first time that Caleb brought a really drunk girl home?
3. Isn't it true that you would say anything to protect a guy who's been accused of sexual assault?
4. Isn't it true that you've been accused of taking advantage of girls?
5. Why are you covering for your buddy?

Questions Submitted by Respondent

For Complainant

1. You admit that you initiated the sex by taking off Caleb's pants, isn't that correct?
2. If you believed that you were raped, why didn't you go to counseling or the college's rape advocates after hooking up with Caleb?
3. You indicated that you were sick for days, but isn't it true that you posted a video to your YouTube site the morning after you say that Caleb raped you?
4. If you were so sick, how did you do that?
5. Why do you say you went to get a rape test when you know you just went to get Plan B?
6. Isn't it true that you make stuff up a lot?
7. Isn't it true you were once hospitalized for imagining things?

For Mateo

1. Isn't it true that Complainant is very sexually experienced?
2. Isn't it true that Complainant has hooked up with several of your friends?
3. Isn't it true that you don't like Complainant

For Christine

1. Do you know Complainant well?
2. Have you drank with her before?
3. You were with Complainant for most of the night, correct?
4. You stated that she wasn't very drunk, isn't that true?
